STAMMTISCH [ˈʃtamtɪʃ]

A Stammtisch (German for “regulars’ table”) is an informal group meeting held on a regular basis, and also the usually large table around which the group meets. A Stammtisch is not a structured meeting, but rather a friendly get-together.

The International Office at the Faculty of Law invites all International Researchers, Guest Researchers and International PhD Students to the first International Researchers Stammtisch 2024 to enjoy an informal dinner together. Also PhD Students and Researchers at the Faculty of Law who are interested in getting into contact with our International Researchers are warmly welcomed.
