International Human Rights and Diplomacy

Between Principles and Power: The Role of Human Rights Diplomacy in Today's World

In this conversation, Judge Kittichaisaree, a Member of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea and former member of the United Nations International Law Commission, will explore how diplomatic practice shapes, and sometimes challenges, the advancement of human rights. Drawing on his extensive experience in international law and diplomatic service, he will offer first-hand insights into the complexities of multilateral cooperation, from conflict prevention to international criminal justice.

This event is open to students, legal professionals, aspiring diplomats, and anyone interested in international relations, human rights, and global justice. A moderated discussion will be followed by an open Q&A session.
